

A blue flag is shown flying against a bright sun in a clear blue sky. The sun is positioned in the upper center, creating a lens flare effect. To the left, there is a dark silhouette of a person, possibly a soldier or a member of a color guard, standing at attention. The overall scene is set against a deep blue background.

Dakota Color Guard

What is Color guard?

- Color guard is a performance-based activity that involves dance and equipment such as flag, rifle, and sabre.
- The origins of this activity came from the military “guarding of the colors,” or flag.
- Color guard acts as the main visual support of a marching band.

What are the qualifications for joining Color Guard?

There is no prior experiences needed to join Color Guard

Dedication, teamwork, and a positive attitude is all that we require!

Dancing ability may help but is by no means required

Many of our members don't have dancing experience, so don't worry if you don't

What are the benefits of joining
Color guard?

Learning about teamwork

Making strong friendships

Staying healthy and active

Performing at football games and competitions

Going to over-night band camp

Being able to waive 0.5 of the required PE credit

Experiences and opinions from members

- "I joined Color guard my freshman year and I don't regret it at all. I made so many new friends and learned so much."
- "I found out about color guard through band in 8th grade and I immediately fell in love with it. I am happy to be a part of such an amazing team."
- "My favorite part of Color Guard is going to Band Camp and learning our show while still having fun with my friends."

- "Color Guard was a great way for me to become less introverted and make more friends."
- "I was a bit hesitant to join color guard at first, but it ended up being one of the best decisions I've ever made. I've learned so much and have made a bunch of new friends."
- "When I joined color guard, I had no idea what I was getting into. Through this program, I have made so many friends and memories. I have learned about leadership, performing, and what it means to be a part of an amazing team. Overall, this has been the best part of my high school years and I am so glad I made the decision to join."

Interested in joining? Here's how:

- Join the group on the Band App for the 2021 Marching Band season so you can receive all information about the upcoming season: <https://band.us/n/a7a843je53c5H>
- Clinics/Auditions are planned for April and May